

Calculator Required

The radius of a circle is 1 metre longer than the radius of another circle. If their areas differ by 5π square metres, then what is the radius of each? metres?