

An equation in which the highest power of the variable is 2 is called a..... equation.